2023 Can Sumoi “La Rosa” Rose, Catalunya, Spain

La Rosa is a seductive and delicate Rosé made from Sumoll and Xarel-lo grapes. Native to the Penedes appellation, the blend of these two grape varietals provides the wine’s strong Mediterranean characteristics. With notes of wild strawberries, grapefruit, and summer flowers, along with refreshing acidity and a pleasantly nutty finish, this wine is elegant yet approachable.

2021 Kagan Cellars Rose, Clarksville, California

This Rosé is as fresh as the break of day! Comprised of a blend of Tempranillo and Mourvèdre, this wine opens with aromas of fresh strawberry and orange blossom. The bright flavors awaken your senses with light red berries, orange zest, and wet stone. With a lovely clean finish, this Rosé is refined and refreshing.

2023 Couly-Dutheil Chinon Rose, Loire Valley, France

Since 1921, Couly-Dutheil has been well known for the quality of its wines served at the most prestigious tables in France. Today, Couly-Dutheil remains a family house owned by the third and fourth generation. The Chinon region has all the qualities of the greatest soils. Its semi-oceanic climate is exceptionally mild and benefits of long sunny periods. The variety of soils and their particular qualities allows the cabernet-franc (98% of the vineyard) to express all its fineness and its celebrated “taffetas” within a range of strong personalities. Beautiful pink color, announcing a nose gourmand and fruity with notes of currants and citrus fruits. The mouth is fleshy, delicate, and slightly spicy.
