

Pinot Noir Tasting Flight

2019 Granville Pinot Noir Farmhouse Cuvée, Willamette Valley, WA

Brimming with scrumptious red and black cherries, the 2019 Granville Pinot Noir Farmhouse Cuvée adds a savory base with accents of cola spice and whole cluster deliciousness. This classic Willamette Valley Pinot Noir Cuvée is a blend of 4 different vineyards.

2018 Bouchard Aine & Fils Fixin "La Maziere", Côte de Nuits, France

With bright ruby red and purple tints, the 2018 Bouchard Aine & Fils Fixin "La Maziere" presents an elegant bouquet of little black fruits, such as blueberries and blackberries, combined with spice and a hearty earthiness. Black fruit, and notes of spices and vanilla shine on the palate. Displaying a full body, yet with elegant and silky tannins, this wine shows off what old world Burgundy is all about.

2018 Kagan Pinot Noir, Rodgers Creek Vineyard, CA

Like an ancient mariner, this wine evokes the secrets of old-world charm and simplicity. Grown on steep hillsides with well-drained soils, this Pinot Noir was produced in a strict Burgundian style and is Kagan Cellars' nod to the French tradition. The wine opens with aromas of strawberry, laurel leaves, and umami; followed by flavors of red plum, nutmeg, and black tea. Good acid with an exceptionally clean finish will allow this wine to pair beautifully with food.
